Dear Beloved,

I am writing you this message with hope you are in good health and state of mind to hear me out.

My names are Laura Chipu and I am originally from South Africa but I am living here in Libya.

I lost my parents to the attack of some rebels here in Libya because my late father was linked to the government and loyalists of Late Gaddafi in business.

I have been under hiding in the past 2 years till recently when I find a document linking me to my father's deposit abroad.

My contacting you now is to find a way of retrieving my father's fund and possibly help me come out of Libya either to join you in your country or move to any western country to complete my education and continue life.

Going back to my country (South Africa) is not an alternative at this point since my uncles are already fighting each other over whatever my father have there.

I will discuss this situation in details the moment I hear from you.through my private email : laurchipo@gmail.com

Thanks in advance,

Laura Chipu
